James Corbett QC is an English Barrister and Queen's Counsel, a deputy High Court Judge, and an authority on cross-border litigation in English and Commonwealth courts, with an emphasis on disputes in the financial services and technology industries and insolvency contexts.

Mr. Corbett QC has served as lead advocate in a number of substantial, international disputes involving banking and securities matters. These often involve claims of £ 100 million+ by non-English banks, brokerage firms, and other institutions against the major international banks. In recent years, he has led matters against Standard Chartered Bank, JP Morgan Chase, and Royal Bank of Scotland, among others.

He has regularly advised and appeared in cases throughout the Caribbean involving trusts, bank secrecy, asset protection or recovery, fraud and joint venture agreements. He has been admitted permanently or pro hac to the Bars of several jurisdictions of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (the principal of which include Anguilla, BVI, Saint Kitts and Nevis), the Turks & Caicos Islands, Gibraltar and also of the Cayman Islands. He has been admitted pro hac in many more jurisdictions.

In addition, Mr. Corbett QC has deep experience in international arbitrations and is a Chartered Arbitrator and Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the Hong Kong and Singapore Institutes of Arbitrators, and a member of the London Court of International Arbitration and many other arbitration panels. He is also an experienced mediator.
