

Roland G. Schroeder
Global Executive Litigation Counsel - Corporate
General Electric Company

Responsibilities include the management of significant U.S. and international litigation and compliance risk, domestic and international ADR, and the implementation of company-wide legal policy in these and other areas. Roland is a founding member and current Chairman of the Corporate Counsel International Arbitration Group (CCIAG), sits on the Board of Directors of the International Mediation Institute (IMI), and serves on the Advisory Committee to the New York Law School ADR Program. He has previously served on the ICC Commission on Arbitration, the Executive Committee of the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR), and the Connecticut Commission on Civil Court ADR Reform, and has served as Chair of the Corporate Counsel subcommittee of the USCIB and Corporate Counsel liaison to the IBA mediation committee. He has more than 25 years of experience in litigating and arbitrating complex commercial disputes domestically and internationally.

Mr. Schroeder is an active member of the Washington, D.C. bar and previously practiced with Shearman & Sterling and Ross, Dixon & Bell in Washington, D.C. He is a law graduate of Georgetown University Law School, and has a B.S. in mechanical engineering from Lehigh University.

